Scotch and Polled Shorthorns

Thursday, November 21, 1957

12:30 P. M.

THE PLAINS, VIRGINIA

A Message from the Manager:

For the past two years, we have been building up a cow and calf program. Our goal is to have 100 head of brood cows and to sell the offspring each year in the Fall, right off grass.

We have purchased the best foundation stock available, both Scotch and Polled. Three Scotch herd bulls were purchased from S. G. Bennett, Scotsdale Farms, Georgetown, Ontario, and have been used on our good Scotch cows and on our polled cows to strengthen the bone and substance of their offspring. We leased the popular and top breeding bull, Cherry Hill Souvenir x, from W. J. McCeney, Jr., and he has been doing a superb job breeding smooth quality cattle.

We are very proud of our cow herd. Several bred cows—cows that were earmarked as members of our permanent herd—are being offered in this sale for the benefit of those wishing to purchase the service of our outstanding sires.

The cattle are not highly fitted. The cows run outside during the winter and get grass silage and hay. During the summer they have only grass. The calves receive no grain. The bulls run in the pastures with the cows.

The health of the herd is good. It has been accredited for tuberculosis for the past three years and a thirty-day test for Bangs will be made.

We plan to sell our entire calf crop each year. We look forward to seeing you at our first sale on November 21st and hope that you will plan to return each Fall.

	Perfume (170676) Red, William Munro

★ARCHWOOD PAULINE 2644-962. She is a double granddaughter of the famous Calrossie Mercury and a very good individual. Bred to Scotsdale Highlander on October 15.

Many people who are anxious to get started in the Short-horn and Polled Shorthorn business prefer to buy females close to calving. So we have gone into our breeding herd and have selected several bred females to offer in this, our first sale.

We want you to see the value of Archwood foundation females and return to our sale each year for your additions and replacements.
